Understanding how to move forward in a divorce or custody dispute, by creating a plan that you can rely on, is guaranteed to help you feel more secure about your future. Review the sample consultation agenda below to help prepare for what we will accomplish.

CONSULTATION AGENDA

The consultation is 100% confidential. We will discuss why you scheduled a consultation, and find out exactly what you wish to accomplish in your case.

When we know what you want to accomplish, we will identify everything that is preventing you from reaching your goals.

We will outline the first 3-4 major steps that will move you forward to your goals, and help make your life better immediately.

We will then work toward a long-term plan on how to more permanently solve your problems and give you lasting peace of mind.

WHAT GOES IN A PLAN?

We will have an honest discussion about family, children and your personal goals.

We will discuss and understand how you want to live your life now and in the future.

We will discuss your current and long term professional goals

Once We Deeply Understand The Above:
We will create plans and discuss costs and results.

What Happens After The Consultation?

After we meet at the consultation, we will present you with options on how to move forward to improve your life. We will help you make a decision on the best way to accomplish your goals.

We will do everything possible to make sure that your decision is based on whether or not we are truly able to help you. If we believe the best solution is to not work with our office, or any attorney, we will recommend that.
